VOLUME LXXXIII. PITTSBURGH, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1868. NUMBER 247.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THE Republicans have gained eight members in the Lower House of the State Legislature.

THE Republicans of Philadelphia mean to contest the election of all the Democrats claiming to be elected in that county, when the official returns are published.

HERE is how we figure Mr. COVODE'S election in the XXIst District: Mr. FOSTER'S majorities: Fayette, 875; Westmoreland, 1,450; total, 2,325; COVODE'S majority in Indiana county, 2,350; COVODE'S majority, 25. This is close figuring, but we think the correct returns to be received will diminish the reported Democratic majorities.

THE LATEST FIGURES.

Pennsylvania gives an unofficially reported Republican majority of 12,990, which will be increased by more exact returns. Ohio is conceded to us by our opponents by at least 20,000. Indiana is closer, but still decisively Republican, the Democrats admitting our majority to be not less than 3,000. And Nebraska, giving not more votes than our own county of Allegheny, is Republican by about 2,000 majority.

THE GIBRALTER OF PENNSYLVANIA.

It is a well-chosen title which our County Committee have given to this County and those Cities, which together constitute the impregnable strong-hold of loyalty to the Union within this Commonwealth. The word itself speaks volumes of commendation, broad and well merited. Friends of the old flag, we have not yet done our best; we must let it out to the last notch in November. Planchette says that notch is twelve thousand—and Planchette knows.

THE CERTAINTIES TO COME.

The Presidency committed to General GRANT by the nearly unanimous voice of the people, a Congress overwhelmingly Union in both branches, a Judiciary which will constitutionally refrain from political decisions, an administration of the Government which will restore peace to the land and prosperity to all its people, and the final, and complete extirpation of the abominable heresies which, under the cloak of a sham-Democracy, have for eight years made a nation miserable—these are the inevitable certainties which the future now promises. We shall have peace at last!

THE FEDERAL SENATE.

Of the seventy United States Senators, fifty-eight are friends of the Union and only twelve are adherents to the BLAIR Democracy. Of these twelve, two will be replaced, from Pennsylvania and Indiana, with better representatives of Loyalty, by the Legislatures which those States elected on Tuesday, and Wisconsin is equally certain to give Mr. DOOLITTLE'S seat to a better man. When, therefore, the three unreconstructed States shall come in, sixty-one members out of a full Senate of seventy-six must be supporters of General GRANT. It looks very much as if that important branch of the Government is to be "hopelessly Radical" for years to come.

OUR HOME VOTE.

The complete returns from the county of Allegheny, except five small townships and one precinct of another, all of which we estimate at WILLIAMS' vote of last year, show an aggregate Republican majority of nine thousand and ten. The actual returns from the estimated townships (East Deer, Franklin, Marshall, Upper St. Clair, Richland and one precinct of Scott,) will increase the majority still more. We have thus, on a largely increased vote, gained 2,630 on our majority last year, and 1,294 on that of 1866. Of this year's majority, 2,332 is contributed by the city of Pittsburgh, and 2,730 from that of Allegheny.

Complete returns from the municipal election in this city, give the majorities at 1,575 for BRUSH, Mayor; 1,993 for McGOWAN, Controller, and 2,073 for COCHRAN, Treasurer. These results are honorably conspicuous in view of the peculiar local causes, present and past, which complicated our municipal politics.

We may all be proud of such a county, and of its two principal cities.

A VOICE FROM THE SOUTH.

A prominent Southern man, "who was an efficient Major General in the rebel army," writing on business matters to a manufacturing firm at Zanesville, added some very pointed observations, as follows:

"I would have dealt more largely with you this fall, but was restrained on account of the condition of the country.

"I am an old slave-holder; was not an original secessionist; was opposed to the war; finally went in and staid in until the Confederate flag went down; was a rebel, good and true. I have no interest anywhere but here, where my home is, where my lands lie. With these antecedents, let me say to you that unless Grant and Colfax are elected, this country will finally be robbed of all hope of coming prosperity. These people will take the election of Seymour and Blair as an acknowledgment on the part of the North that the war was wrongfully fought by the North. In other words, as an indorsement of secession, and SECEDE THEY WILL AS SURE AS HEAVEN, before Seymour's time expires. This will ruin all hope. The man of property will be destroyed. All will be lost, and lost, alas, forever.

"My confidence in Grant's election induces this small order. If elected we will talk more about things." * * *

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, October 14.—The table of estimated and reported majorities for all counties of Pennsylvania foots up a Republican majority of 12,990, which will probably be increased. The Press gives returns showing the election of the following Republican members of Congress: O'Neill, Kelly, Townsend, Dickey, Lake, Mercur, Packer, Cessna, Morrell, Armstrong, Schofield, Gilfillan, Negley, Phelps and Donnelly. The Democrats elect Randall, Moffett, Reading, Stiles, Getz, Vanauken, and probably Woodward.

The result in Covode's Congressional District (21st) is still in doubt, only scattering returns have been received as yet, but his election is claimed by 100.

The city ticket was carried by the Democrats by majorities ranging from 491 to 3,348. City Council will be largely Republican in both branches.

In the Sixteenth Congressional district Cessna, Republican, will have about 80 majority. In the Twenty-first district Covode is elected by about 100 majority.

Lawrence county—The majority for the Republican State ticket is 1,989—a gain of over 400.

BUTLER, PA., October 14, 1868.

The Republican majority here is five hundred and thirty-two, with six districts to be heard from, which will reduce it to about four hundred and ninety-two.

W. H. H. RIDDLE.

Twelfth District—A dispatch from Scranton says there has been such irregularity at the polling places, that it has been necessary to wait for the official count to show whether Woodward, Democrat, or Strong, Republican, is elected for Congress.

In the election riot at Wilkesbarre, yesterday, one man was mortally wounded.

The Democrats have elected Congressmen in the First, Third, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Fifteenth Districts. The delegation will stand 16 Republicans and eight Democrats; being a Democratic gain of 2.

Harrisburg has for the first time elected a Republican Mayor, Council, School Board and City Treasurer.

INDIANA.

EVANSVILLE, Oct. 14.—Vanderberg county gives a Democratic majority of 30; gain of 200. Posey county gives a Democratic majority of 275; gain of 375. Warrick county gives a Democratic maj. of 275; gain of 200. Perry county gives a Democratic maj. of 200; gain of 250. Spencer county gives a Republican maj. of 100; loss of 75. Gibson county gives a Republican maj. of 30; gain of 60. Davis county gives a Democratic maj. of 130; gain of 100. Pike county gives a Democratic maj. of 4; gain of 40. Niblack, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First District, was elected by over one thousand majority.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 15.—Both parties now concede the election of the Republican State ticket by from two to three thousand. No change in Congress since last report. The Republicans have a majority in both branches of the Legislature,

INDIANAPOLIS, October 15;—In seventy-four counties heard from the Republican State ticket has 5,339 majority. Allowing the same proportional gains for the Democrats in the 18 counties to hear from the Republican majority will be from 2,000 to 3,000.

Later and more complete returns from the Sixth Congressional district gives Vorhees election by a very small majority. Holman, Democrat, in the Third district is elected. This makes the delegation in Congress 7 Republicans and 4 Democrats

BRAZIL, Ind., October 14.—Clay county gives a Democratic majority of 269, a Democratic gain of 58 over the vote of 1866.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—In eighty-two counties heard from the Republican majority is 6,851, with ten counties to hear from, which gave a Democratic majority in 1866 of 3,300. If the Democratic gains in these counties are as large as those already reported it will reduce the majority from 1,500 to 2,000.

OHIO.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Oct. 14.—The Democratic majority in Tuscarawas county is six hundred and ten; a Democratic loss of one hundred and twenty-seven.

A permanent organization was effected by electing Hon. G. W. Bolling, of Petersburg, President, and a number of Vice Presidents and Secratories. ## RELIGIOUS.

Protestant Episcopal General Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, October 14, 1868.

In the Protestant Episcopal Convention to-day, Dr. Samuel Cook, D. D., of New York, presented the following memorial, accompanied by a verbatim report of Rev. Stephen Tyng, Jr., etc.:

To the House of Bishops and of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America:

The undersigned, being members of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and wardens and vestrymen of the church of he Holy Trinity in New York City, respectfully invite the attention of the General Convention to the annexed report of the Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr., Rector of said Church, as exhibiting a recent interpretation of certain canons. The previous understanding thereof and the long continued, widely extended and undisputed usage in conformity with that understanding, and respectfully submit for their consideration the propriety of pronouncing some definition or making some amendment which may clear the law of dispute and promote the extension of the church and advancement of religion. Very respectfully, [signed] Robt. Dumont, S. Henry Hurd, Wardens; E. R. Tremaine, J. Nelson Tappan, Chas. K. Randall, Wm. L. Andrews, Jonathan Edgar, Wm. B. Northup, R. M. Brundige, Vestrymen.

The memorial was referred to the Committee on Canons without debate.

Herman Cope, of Philadelphia, was re-elected Treasurer.

A member offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Canons to inquire into and report if it would not be expedient to amend article four of the Constitution, which was read as follows:

The Bishop or Bishops in every Diocese shall be chosen agreeably to such rules as shall be fixed by the Convention of that Diocese, and every Bishop of this church shall confine the exercise of his Episcopal office to his proper Diocese unless requested to ordain or confirm or perform any other act of the Episcopal office by any church destitute of a Bishop. Adopted.

Rev. Wm. Benedict, of Georgia, offered the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be requested to consider the expediency of proposing an amendment to the Constitution, or on declaratory a canon setting forth the principles etabodied in the following statement, or such, or so much as they may deem sufficiently clear and important, and in such form as they may select This Church in her legislation recognizes these principles. That the Episcopate characterizes and underlies her organizotion; that the Episcopate is derived from the Apostles of our Lord and perpetuates their authority to confer Holy Orders and rule in the Church of Christ; that this in matters ecclesiastic is absolute, save when limited by the prayer book, or canons, or Constitution of the Church. That when the scope and meaning of this limitation is questioned, it is the duty of the inferior to defer the apostolic authority till the question of limitation is settled at the proper tribunal. A debate followed as to the refeference of the resolution at the conclusion of which the subject was tabled.

The following message from the House of Bishops was referred to Committee on canons.

Resolved, That the House of clerical and lay deputies concurring in canon 10, section 2, title 1. be and hereby is annulled, by striking out the word "three," and inserting the word "one" as follows: "and if such foreign clergymen be a deacon he shall reside in this country at least three years, and obtain in this country the requisite testimonials of character before he be ordained a priest."

Rev. Dr. Pitkin, of Michigan, from the Committee on New Dioceses, reported in favor of the division of the diocese of western New York, each division to take place the 1st of November. Adopted at the afternoon session.

A message was received from the House of Bishops announcing that they had concurred in the resolution relative to the erection of a new diocese in Southern New York.

A message was also received from the same body stating that they had concurred with the resolution adopted this morning dividing the diocese of Western New York.

The balance of the session was consumed in discussing the proposed change of the name from "Convention" to "Council."

(Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA, October 14, 1868.

Messrs. Covode; Cake and Taylor, Republicans, have been re-elected to Congress. John Cessna in the Somerset District, has also been elected. These comprise all the doubtful districts, with the exception of the IIId (Myers,) where the returns are made doubtful by Democratic frauds. We have gained eight members of the lower house in the State Legislature. The Republican majority in the State is about ten thousand, which would have been at least nineteen thousand, but for unprecedented bloodshed and fraud. In this city all the Democratic candidates claiming to be elected will be subjected to a judicial investigation, to begin as soon as the official vote is announced. The Pennsylvania victory is complete. J. W. FORNEY.

[Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

The contest was the fiercest ever known, and centered upon Mr. Cessna. No means were too vile to be employed against him.

Correspondence from Independence, Ingo county, California, states that a large column of dense smoke was observed rising from the mountains in the direction of Walker's Pass, and frequent shocks of earthquake felt accompanied by a loud noise like thunder, indicating a volcano in that vicinity.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 14.—The opposition steamer Nebraska, from Panama, arrived this morning. The Republicans are jubiiant over the election returns from Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana, and paraded the streets with music and fireworks, cheering for Grant and Colfax. The wildest enthusiasm prevailed, although it was near midnight when the news was received.

The dry dock at Hunters Point is finished and ready for vessels.

Captain Coasting reports that while off Coos Bay, Oregon, he encountered smoke so dense that it obstructed the progress of his vessel one day. Three hundred birds fell dead on the deck of his vessel from suffocation. The people of Coos Bay and vicinity could not account for the smoke.

Good Templars.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ROCKLAND, Me., October 13.—The Grand Lodge of Good Templars closed its semi annual session to-day. There was a general expression that the time had come for temperance men to support for public officers, only those who will endorse, vote for, and execute prohibitory laws. The order has 28,000 members in Maine.

SANDUSKY, O., October 14.—The schooner B. B. Wade, from Buffalo for Fremont, with no cargo, went ashore last night on Cedar Point, at the mouth of Sandusky Bay. She will be got off without much difficulty if the wind remains favorable. The crew are all safe.

Spain and Cuba.

The Provisional Junta of Spain signalizes every day by the proclamation of some new reforms. The death penalty has been abolished, and the sanctity of private letters and domiciles guaranteed. The Cubans in Spain will be permitted to choose two members of the Junta; a concession which indicates that Cuba will be invited to send representatives to the Constituent Assembly. General Dulce, who was formerly Captain-General of Cuba, and who more recently was one of the seven Generals who were banished by Queen Isabella, has been reappointed Captain-General of Cuba, in place of Lersundi. The latter, according to the Journal des Debats, has sent in his adhesion to the Provisional Government. The report mentioned by a Paris paper, that Prim aspires to be King, is entitled to no credit.

The Governor-General of Cuba is wise in his generation. The Fillibusteros and the Annexationists, and all the other factions of dissatisfied Creoles, have been completely outflanked by his proclamation recognizing the new Provisional Government of Spain, inviting all to join him in allegiance and loyalty to that authority, and recommending them peacefully to await the course of events. We see no signs whatever of trouble in Cuba. General Prim apparently has nothing to fear from the most important possessions of the Spanish Crown—New York Tribune.

A Slate House.

A correspondent describes a novel house recently built at Brownsville, Maine:

"This house is not only shingled but is clap-boarded with slate. It is a slate edifice, fire-proof and indestructible. The slates are put on to the boarding of the wall with only paper between. They are in the form of segments of a circle, overlapping each other, and have a very ornamental effect. The natural color of the slate is pleasing to the eye, and no paint is needed. If it were, the slate would furnish it, for when ground it makes an excellent paint, which Mr. Sparrow has used on his barn with good effect. The whole establishment is elegant in appearance, and shows what can be done with native materials. The front steps are of beautiful slabs of slate, the sinks, mantles, shelves are of slate; the woodwork is of brown ash, a native wood, which makes a handsome finish. In short, this is a real State-of-Maine house, and shows the wealth of her resources. The slate costs little if any more than clapboards. When the railroads brings this material to us, slate houses must become fashionable."

THE people of Quebec are opposed to entering into a treaty of reciprocity with the United States unless a provision be inserted giving to vessels built or owned in the Dominion of Canada the right of registration in the United States, and allowing free access to the coasting and lake trade of the United States. The Board of Trade at Quebec assert that as these rights are enjoyed by the United States vessels in all the ports of the British Empire, similar privileges should be enjoyed by the Canadians.

FOREIGN GOSSIP.

IN the year 1867, in which 471,102 persons died in England and Wales (half of them minors and about half the others women), 37,497 probates of wills or grants of letters of administration were issued, 14,633 in London, and 22,874 in the English and Welsh provincial registries. The personal property of these persons was £92,303,570.

A FEW Sundays ago, quite a crowd gathered in front of the large gate of the Tulleries, over which is to be read the following words: "The public is not admitted here." A workingman elicited much applause by drawing a stick of chalk from his pocket, and adding to those words, "Sometimes it is."

SMOKING in railway carriages is now prohibited in England. From and after the 1st of October every railway company is bound to provide smoking compartments for each class of carriages in every train in which there is more than one carriage of a class, unless they are specially exempted from so doing by the Board of Trade.

ANGLING is getting quite the thing for ladies in England. At Gordon Castle, on the river Spey, reports state that the Countess of Sandwich caught two salmon; one of seven pound weight and one of five pounds. Lady Caroline Lenox caught one of seventeen pounds, and Lady Florence Lennox one of twenty-three pounds weight.

A RECENT number of the Pasquino, of Florence, gives the following carricature on the French occupation of Rome: Louis Napoleon, in full military array, presenting arms to a Papal carriage, whose occupant is reciprocating the compliment by applying his two hands, with the fingers elongated to the tip of his nose. "Friend Louis will persist in standing sentinel and presenting arms to those who only reply by a civil salute."

A LONDON paper says: "We understand that the practice of permitting a layman to read the lessons has been introduced in the Church of St. Barnabas, South Kensington, at the Sunday afternoon services. This custom is perfectly in accordance with ecclesiastical law, and, besides other advantages, possesses the strong recommendation of giving a little rest to the clergy, whose Sunday duties are, as a rule, anything but light."

THE quantity of port wine produced in Portugal in 1868 is about 40,000 pipes, against about 45,000 in 1867, 60,000 in 1866, 96,000 in 1865, 66,000 in 1864, and 83,800 in 1863. The exceptionally fine summer, however, caused the grapes of the Upper Douro to mature to perfection, and the gathering was completed under favorable circumstances. This is the first season since 1851, in which the grapes have been perfectly free from odium.

A CENTENARIAN, who had been a pensioner for sixty-three years, died recently at Recouvrance, France. Her name was Quiriec, and her age one hundred and one years. She was a widow of a warrant officer killed at Trafalgar in 1805, by which event she obtained a pension which she has enjoyed ever since. The family to which she belonged seems to be hereditarily long-lived; her father died at the age of ninety-nine, and she leaves a daughter in her seventy-ninth year.

AN interesting discovery has just been made in Rome, in a cellar in the Vicolo del Balestrari. It is a marble pedestal bearing an inscription to Hercules, by Sillus Messala, who was Consul with Sabinus under the Emperor Caracella, A. D., 214. It has been excavated near Pompey's theatre, where, under the Bisclone Palace, the great bronze Hercules now in the Vatican was found in 1864. The inscription (which is in capital letters) is as follows: "Hercvl Defensori M. Silivs Messala Consvl."

UNDER the caption "Three Months of Liberal Rule," Le Temps, of Paris, has published a curious statement of all the persecutions suffered by the French press since the new law went into effect. In three months alone, forty-one sentences have been passed against journalists, fifteen have been condemned to prison, and forty-nine to fines. All told, forty-four months of imprisonment have been inflicted, and fines to the extent of fifty-seven thousand six hundred and fifty francs assessed. Three journals have been entirely suppressed, and more than a dozen others forbidden the privilege of sale in the streets. This concludes Le Temps, is the vaunted liberty of the Empire.

AN account of the singular effect produced by lightning was lately given by Gen. Morin before the French Academy of Sciences. In the Department of the Yonne the lightning struck a whole village, and set several cottages on fire; and in one instance caused a most extraordinary metallurgic phenomenon. In the drawers of one of the burnt cottages were some gold coins and twenty five-franc pieces in silver. The electric fluid melted these coins in four ingots of a most strange appearance. The silver coins have been completely melted, but the gold coins, although encrusted and adhering to each other, have not been defaced, the effigies on each being distinctly visible. These ingots have been deposited at the Conservatoire des Arts et Metiers.

MARIA S. RYE proposes to leave England this month for Canada, with another company of one hundred women. She writes to one of the London papers: "The good opinions my girls won from both passengers and officers in the ship which carried us out is the best proof I can offer that they were, on the whole, above the average of English workingwomen; and I have the pleasure of knowing that nearly every girl who went out with me in May to Canada is doing well. Over four hundred letters lie before me, the majority of them, as a glance at the caligraphy would tell, from 'little Marchionesses,' who not unnaturally think there is something better before them in Canada than a drudging place at 1s. 6d. or 2s. a week in England."

POISONED hosiery furnishes the material for the latest "sensation" in London. The Star says: "Mr. Webber, a medical man, has made a somewhat alarming statement at the Guildhall. He affirmed that the coloring matter in many of the socks now sold in London contain a poisonous element which produced irritating sores on the feet of several of his patients, and that in other cases which had come to his knowledge the dye had proved equally deleterious. He made the reassuring statement that on his representations a large manufacturing firm in the city had countermanded an order they had given for an enormous quantity of these bright colored socks. He had not yet ascertained what was the nature of the poison, but as soon as he acquired this information he would let the public know what antidote they should use. A new meaning will now be given to the vulgar old street cry, 'How's your poor feet?'"

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

WOMAN'S WORK,

Darning little stockings,
For restless little feet;
Washing little faces
To keep them clean and sweet;
Hearing Bible lessons,
Teaching catechism,
Praying for salvation
From heresy and schism.
Woman's work!

Sewing on the buttons,
Overseeing rations,
Soothing with a kind word
Others lamentations;
Guiding clumsy Bridgets,
Coaxing sullen cooks,
Entertaining company,
And reading recent books.
Woman's work!

Burying out of sight
Her own unhealing smarts;
Letting in the sunshine
On other clouded hearts;
Binding up the wounded,
Healing of the sick,
Bravely marching onward
Through dangers dark and thick.
Woman's work!

Leading little children,
And blessing manhood's years;
Showing to the sinful
How God's forgiveness cheers.
Scattering sweet roses,
Along another's path;
Smiling by the wayside,
Content with what she hath.
Woman's work!

Letting fall her own tears
Where only God can see;
Wiping off another's
With tender sympathy;
Learning by experience,
Teaching by example;
Yearning for the gateway,
Golden, pearly, ample.
Woman's work!

At last cometh silence—
A day of deep repose;
Her locks smoothly braided,
Upon her breast a rose;
Lashes resting gently
Upon the marble cheek;
A look of blessed peace
Upon the forehead meek.

The hands softly folded,
The kindly pulses still;
The cold lips know no smile,
The noble heart no thrill;
Her pillow needs no smoothing,
She craveth for no care—
Love's tenderest entreaty
Wakes no responses there.

A grave in the valley,
Tears, bitter sobs, regret;
Another lesson taught,
That life may not forget;
A face forever hidden,
A race forever run;
"Dust to dust," the preacher saith,
And woman's work is done.

EPHEMERIS.

—Brignoli is in Chicago, and successful.

—Mrs. Lincoln has probably reached Europe.

—The mother of "the Hutchinsons" has recently died.

—A man in New York has been stabbed with an umbrella.

—There will be ten Quakers in the new British Parliament.

—In several parts of Arkansas, registration has been broken up.

—New York has a street car which carries its own rails along with it.

—Leffingwell is playing his burlesques in the National Theatre, Cincinnati.

—One Ohio county raised a quarter of a million bushels of peaches this year.

—The new weapons for the Japanese army and navy are coming from America.

—An exchange says select massacres of obnoxious wives are fashionable in New York.

—Hashtown is what they call Brooklyn now, on account of its innumerable boarding houses.

—To-day, O'Bladwin, the Irish giant, and Wormald, are announced to make jelly of each other.

—Chase thinks of coming into political life again. The question is, which side will he honor with his influence?

—The story is started that Mrs. Lincoln went to Europe because she wished to secure a sail for her clothes.—N. Y. World.

—The drummer boy of the Rappahannock who eloped some time ago with some eclat and a girl, is now a happy father.

—Groomsmen are discarded now at New York weddings. Would be grooms are often discarded here before the weddings.

—It costs the Parepa-Rosa troupe $1,500 per night in salaries, and the manager thinks San Francisco anything but a Golden City.

—Saturday is the popular day for marrying in Paris. This gives them all day Sunday to think over the awful step just taken.

—Mrs. Audubon at last appeals to the charitable to assist her in denying the reports of her destitution and need of assistance.

—A marine velocipede has been invented which claims to be able to cross the channel between England and France in three hours.

—Miss Agnes Ethel is a new tragedienne, who has been educated for the profession by Matilda Herron. She made a private debut as Camille on Saturday.

—The Valley City Woolen Mills, at Grand Rapids, Mich., were destroyed by fire on Monday. The loss is estimated at $35,000; insured for $5,000.

—Gen. Washington never made a speech on any occasion in Congress of more than fifteen minutes in length, yet his silence did not seem to indicate any lack of ability.

—Diana was the goddess of light; and politically speaking, In-diana we see the light of Democratic victory.—N. Y. Leader.

But Diana was a false goddess, and the light has proved nothing but an ignes fatuus.

—The Fifth District of New York seems to enjoy heaping pleasant surprises in the shape of Congressmen upon the nation. First Morrissey and now a fair prospect of Train.

—Mrs. Mary Small, of Maine, has one hundred and nineteen great grand children alive. She probably looks upon it as a Small affair, and upon these descendants as only little things.

—Victoria saw a bonneted and plaided Highlander on the Alps and sent a servant to ask who he was. The Scotchman was so pleased that he wrote to the papers about her royal condescension.

—Only think of 400 souls surviving the earthquake of Ecuador out of 40,000, who were swallowed up in an instant by the subsidence of the whole district, which is now covered by a lake! Horror enough for one day.

—England tried all she could to get the controlling influence in China, but Anson Burlingame beat them out on that line, and now she feels mean and vicious, just as the Democrats do, for evidence of which vide Post.

—The performances at the Old Theatre night before last compelled the audience to tears. The scenes were of the most affecting nature, affecting the welfare of the nation and the existence of the Democratic party.

—One of the English mousers has discovered that ladies of nobility formerly took part in parliamentary proceedings in Great Britain in person or by proxy. This was the case so late as the thirty-fifth year of Edward III.

—An old architect in Paris has invented a universal alphabetical piano, on which children can be taught instantaneously to read, to calculate and to play music. This interesting and ingenious instrument costs but six francs.

—The recent earthquakes in South America have had a remarkable effect upon the bottom of the sea. Recent soundings show the sea much shallower. We hope we won't have any earthquakes near the Allegheny and Upper Ohio.

—The performances at City Hall on Tuesday night were highly interesting. Col. Stuart filled the chief role admirably, and to the satisfaction of the immense audience whose prolonged cheers showed them to be in full sympathy with him.

—The serenade we received on Tuesday night was the only sort of aid we or the Republican party care about receiving. Self-reliant, and self-confident when, as now, great things are at stake, are the characteristics of the Union party and its organs.

—The sea is swallowing New Jersey. We don't know where the sea could get a dryer morsel; but the mere fact of so much of that State having disappeared in the maw of old ocean will serve as a Democratic reason for a Republican victory there in November.

—Only about one hundred and sixty of the young men of Vermont last year were connected with any collegiate or scientific institution in or out of the State, and only fifty thousand out of the seventy-six thousand children of school age in that State, attend the free schools.

—The Siamese Twins have a new biographer in Paris, who dresses up the old story that Chang was a Unionist and Eng was a rebel during the war, with the assertion that the quarrels between them became so violent that the twins were at one time on the point of fighting a duel."

—Pollard, who has written "The Lost Cause" and the "Lost Cause Regained," is said to be about to take the election figures of Maine, Vermont, Nebraska, Ohio, Connecticut, Colorado, New Mexico, Indiana, and Pennsylvania, as the basis of still another work, "The Lost Cause Re-lost."

—Gen. Tyndale, having been accused, in Democratic journals, of atheism, replied in a letter in which among other statements, he said, "any one who says I am an atheist, is a foul calumniator." The only notice which one fair Democratic paper took of this was in one line small caps. 'I am an atheist, from Gen. Tyndale's letter of yesterday."

A Queen Losing Her Crown.

A correspondent of the Evenement, who visited San Sebastian at the critical moment of the Spanish revolution, writes an interesting account of what he saw:

"Some officers were watching us as we rode into the city. We dismounted, and my companion, who talks Spanish, asked the chief of them for the news.

"'The Queen is getting ready to leave for Madrid; the royal train is at the station. The revolution is ended,' said this gentleman. But his manner left us in doubt, and instead of going to the hotel, we set out at once for the railway station. The rooms were full of people; but by favor of the Inspector, himself a Frenchman, we reached the platform by the rails.

"Two Spanish flags and a sort of triumphal arch, were arranged before the door, an infantry guard was at the entrance, and before us the railway carriages of the Queen.

"Some fifty Spaniards stood in silence, gazing on us as persons of importance. They had a serious look. At 11 o'clock a vehicle, drawn by two mules, brought two officers and two gentlemen of rank. One of them was Gonzalez Bravo, ex-President of the Ministry. He gave orders, looked over dispatches and appeared much agitated.

"At midnight the Queen and her husband came in a carriage, followed by children and a few ladies of honor. The Queen was in tears; she walked about on the platform; the soldiers saluted her; the curious in large numbers stood uncovered but preserved a mortal silence.

"'Let us be off,' said the Queen at length; and she stepped into the royal carriage. Her train also entered; the locomotive was attached, and at the moment when the conductor was about to give the signal, two despatches, doubtless of moment, were brought; the Queen immediately stepped out of the carriage, and said to her ex-Minister, who was begging her not to go to Madrid again, "If I could wear pantaloons, I would go back to my Capitol." This is historic fact.

"Isabella hid her face in her hands, and, with tears in her eyes, went back into the waiting-room, and then into the Palace.

"The royal railway carriages were taken away; the Governor of San Sebastian conducted the Queen to her coach, and went to the city on foot."

Is there not always something sad in the fall of the great? Will not many be more sorry than merry over a Queen reduced so suddenly to the ranks of the sans culotes?

AN OLD sea captain died at St. Malo, the other day, in whose history was one fearful domestic tragedy. Fifty-five years ago this old sea captain returned home after a voyage which had lasted eighteen months. He was a married man. In his twenty-first year he had married a girl of eighteen, a neighbor's daughter, whom he had long loved. When he reached home he found his wife in bed and a child three days old in a cradle by the bedside. His wife was too much embarrassed to say anything. What could she have said in the presence of that cradle? He uttered no reproaches; looked at his wife and looked at the cradle; then asked her in a cold tone to be good enough to get up and walk with him. She obeyed; she tottered with him into the streets. It was January, and a bleak day even for that inclement month. He directed their steps to the ramparts, where the wind from the ocean always blows with violence, and in winter freezes the very marrow. They walked around the ramparts. When she reached home her teeth so shattered she could neither speak nor swallow. A high fever set in soon after she got in bed. She was delirious at daybreak, and died in the course of the day. Her husband abandoned the sea, took a house by himself, lived alone until death, which occurred a few days since.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point, with but little over twenty inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. A drizzling rain fell during the greater part of the afternoon, and it looked in the evening as though it would continue throughout the night.

No arrivals or departures to report aside from the Monongahela River packets and business at the main landing is almost completely suspended. We are in hopes, however, that there will be a rise, and that too before long, when navigation can once more be resumed.

The Camelia, Capt. Thoms Poe, is filling up slowly for Nashville, and will be the first boat out for that point.

—The Armadilio, bound for Pittsburgh, laid up at Parkersburg last Thursday.

—Captain B. R. Splane has purchased at New Orleans the Cleona for the Opelousa trade. Price $9,000.

—Capt. Joseph Ross, whose death is noted in another place, was one of the pilots on the Duke of Orleans when on her famous trip in 1844 from New Orleans to Cincinnati.

—The Leonidas and Mary Davage, from St. Louis, and Bermuda from New Orleans, enroute for Pittsburgh, were at Cairo on Monday. The Selma (a Pittsburgh boat) passed there some day for New Orleans.

—The Tom Farrow, Capt. John Conway, arrived at Cincinnati on Monday with two barges in tow, containing 700 tuns including 800 kegs nails from Ironton. Williamson and Shinkle pilot the Tom Farrow to St. Louis.

—A late Dubuque paper says: Competition is raging lively, particularly in passenger fares, the usual carrying rates being $6 to St. Paul and $9 to St. Louis. On freights agents don't claim to make any reduction, beyond carrying to St. Paul for 10c per 100 lbs.

—Says the Cincinnati Gazette, of Tuesday: The Yorktown, Louisville to Pittsburgh, arrived yesterday morning, and departed last evening. She had about 150 tuns aboard, and received nothing here except the machinery of Capt. Wash. Ebert's new mountain steamer. Pilots up, George Pollard, Capt. Wash. Ebert, with Wm. Calhoon as steersman.

—The Nightengale, Capt. Frazier, sunk opposite Thebes, Ill., in the Mississippi River, was valued at $16,000, and insured in Cincinnati offices for $12,000, distributed as follows: American, $2,500; Magnolia, $2,500; Commercial, $2,500; National, $2,500; Crescent, $2,000. The latter company had reinsured $1,000 in the Farmers' & Mechanics'.

—A St. Louis telegram under date of Monday says: Noon—River stationary. Pleasant, Business active. The Mississippi is stationary at Dubuque. Missouri low and navigation difficult. The rate to Omaha has advanced to $1 per 100 lbs. Up to September 28, the snag-boat DeRussy had taken from the bed of the Missourri 743 snags, measuring in all near ten miles in length.

—The Memphis Post, of Thursday, says: An excursion of a committee of Congressmen, in the levee and river railroad interest, is soon expected down the river. The Board of Alderman, a few weeks since, refused to extend them any courtesies. Last evening Judge J. F. Swayne honored himself by moving and pleading for the reconsideration of this action. His motion prevailed, and a committee to see what should be done appointed.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial of Tuesday: Capt. A. Drinkwater was at the Broadway yesterday, en route from Evansville for Pittsburgh. He left in last night's train and will return here on Friday.....Capt. John N. Shunk, of the big Louisville, is at the Spencer.....The remains of Capt. James Ross, of Neville, Ohio, who died Thursday last of consumption, after a painful illness, arrived here yesterday on the Mary Ament, for interment in Spring Grove Cemetery. The flags on the wharf and boats were displayed at half-mast during the day, in respect to the memory of the deceased.

—Some of the particulars of the recent accident to the Minneola have been given in our dispatches. The mishap occurred at midnight, and caused some little consternation among the passengers, but most of them were asleep, and knew nothing about it till after the boat had landed. The accident was caused by a drifting log, which caught in the wheel, near Troy, Indiana, and broke the cam frames, pillar block, after hog-chain and cylinder timber. The engineer was at the throttle at the time, and shut off the steam, which saved the cylinder. The boats's lines parted, and she lost her anchor, which caused her to drift twelve miles. The Cora S, coming along, took her in tow and landed her, which cost the Minneola $100. It will take a week to repair the Minneola, and cost considerable money. She brought her wheel back with her.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be, and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out of the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. K. says that he has known the most distressing and harassing coughs, whose vibrations would threaten to shake the whole constitution to pieces, removed in the course of a few days. In long standing cases of consumption, or of other sometimes fatal but always troublesome and annoying maladies, known as catarrh, chronic bronchitis, trachitis or pharyngitis, it is a wonderful alleviating medicine in the former and a sure cure in the latter disease.

DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE IS ENRICHED BY SOME OF THE MOST VALUABLE PLANTS AND HERBS KNOWN TO BE USEFUL AND CURATIVE IN ALL DETERIORATED STATES OF THE HUMAN BLOOD, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable and so most surely fatal.

WE PRINT on the inside pages of this morning's GAZETTE—Second Page: Poetry, Ephemeris, Miscellaneous. Third and Sixth pages: Commercial, Financial and River News. Seventh page: Letter from Kansas, Interesting Reading Matter.

GOLD closed yesterday in New York at 138¼.

MR. BRUSH has received 1,575 majority over Mr. BLACKMORE for Mayor of the city.

As we predicted on Monday morning, the Post has so far found no use for its roosters. It will find none this year; and may as well give up that branch of business entirely.

SAID BLAIR in a letter which was freely circulated amongst his friends in this State, "unless the Democrats carry Pennsylvania by a large majority in October, SEYMOUR cannot be elected. What have his friends to say now?

THE result in Pennsylvania deprived the Post of the power of utterance yesterday morning. In view of the magnificent triumph of the people over corruption and disloyalty, it was filled with amazement, and stood silent as a statue.

THE returns of the election in this State, prove Mr. WALLACE to be the charlatan and humbug we, on Monday, declared him to be. Good at engineering fraudulent naturalizations, criminal colonization of voters, and the manufacture of deceptive estimates, he is literally good for nothing else.

IN VIEW of the grand results so far achieved in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Nebraska, it has been suggested that the Republicans of Allegheny county hold a mass meeting for rejoicing, and that this be called either for next week or the week following, as the County Committee shall judge expedient. Who seconds the motion?

WE CONGRATULATE the wrecked fragments of the Allegheny Democracy, upon the results of a canvass which has been managed by their leaders with the most absolute indifference to principles. It is for their own lasting good that they have been so disastrously beaten on the ring-streaked and speckled ticket which, three months ago, they chuckled over as such an artful dodge. Let them remember this lesson, and improve its fruits.

MR. SHARSWOOD and Mr. THOMPSON, Judges of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, through zeal to serve the Democratic party, connived at, if they did not actually participate in, the immense frauds by which itwas hoped so effectually to corrupt the ballot boxes as to make them misrepresent the will of the people. They now have their just reward in the consciousness of having stained irradicably their personal reputations, of having brought dishonor on the high places they occupy, and of having invoked the contempt of high-minded citizens everywhere, and without distinction of political affinities.

HON. THOMAS WILLIAMS, we regret to learn, is confined to his room by a nervous disease that has troubled him more or less—and at times very severely, for several months. It is entirely owing to this that MR. WILLIAMS has not been heard on the stump during the current canvass. None of the eminent men of the State have been heard and felt more than has Mr. WILLIAMS in all the Presidential campaigns since 1836, none responded at all times with more alacrity or more effect to the wishes of the Whig or Republican party for any personal efforts or sacrifice, and nothing but physical inability has prevented his customary co-operation and aid in the contest now pending before the people.

ON MONDAY, the 5th, at Columbus, Ohio, BLAIR publicly affirmed that Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana, would all of them give Democratic majorities; that "he knew what he was talking about, for he had traveled through those States." They have all given rousing majorities for a true Democracy, but it is very far from being of the BLAIR and HAMPTON gray-back stripe.

THE anxious interest with which our friends were, yesterday, discussing the probabilities of the election of Hon. JOHN COVODE, in the adjoining XXIst District, was in itself a marked proof of their regard for this staunch Republican and faithful public servant. It gratifies us, therefore, to be able to say that we have not for a moment accepted his defeat as an established fact. On the contrary, we were confident of his election by a majority ample for all purposes. We are not able to speak with precision, owing to the very general nature of all returns yet received, but, such as these are, they show his election beyond a doubt, and this is, in effect, conceded by all candid and moderate men on the other side. Defeat has not heretofore been a habit with Mr. COVODE, and the present election has not offered to him any inducements that way.

WE HOPE Mr. BLACKMORE will not suffer himself to be advised by imprudent and brainless politicians to the extent of discharging from employ the policemen who labored for his defeat in the recent municipal election. They, like all other men, had a right to act and vote as they saw proper, and should not be called to account for discharging their duties as good citizens. The Mayor will retire from office with his private character as a well-meaning, courteous, intelligent and honest citizen unimpeached, for in all the contest nothing could be said detrimental to him by his political opponents, other than a lack of executive ability, firm purpose and want of backbone. Let him care not for what has been said of his public character as Mayor of the city, and do nothing which will cause him to forfeit that respect and esteem of all classes of the community, which he will carry with him out of office.

THE three or four Democratic newspapers of Pittsburgh found nothing in the election returns to comfort their readers with, yesterday. Had not Tuesday night closed upon them in such an unpleasant feeling of goneness, they would naturally have turned for consolation to the appropriate idea that, however scornfully Northern freemen and loyal friends of theold flag have repudiated them, the Democracy still retains the undiminished regard of the rebels who bushwhacked our soldiers, starved and murdered them, prisoners, and for four years drenched half of the republic in blood to secure their treasonable ends. Our cotemporaries should have pointed exultingly to these rebels as still heartily with the Democracy, and still expounding its doctrines faithfully in the butcheries of Camilla and Opelousas, and in the general reign of violence and terror throughout the South. There, may be found friends and allies for the Blair Democracy of Pennsylvania, whom no disaster can wean from them, and no amount of political disgrace and defeat can disgust. They shall always be with them. We suggest the topic even now, for their homilies of consolation to their bleeding party. Their case may be desperate here, but there is yet balm in the far Southern Gilead.

IT GIVES ONE a head-ache to think of the abstruse computations in which Democratic arithmeticians are about to engage, outdoing all their previous efforts in the cases of Vermont and Maine. The results in the four great central States which voted for the Union on Tuesday are such as to plunge these calculators into the most recondite depths of arithmetical science, for the four primary rules will not serve them now. The case is desperate, and requires to be handled with as much affectation of profound learning, albeit with as little of solid substance at the bottom, as marked the political addresses of the defunct miscegenation candidates for Congress and the State Senate in this district. The Democratic quill drivers will cypher steadily from this date until the 3d of November, in the delusive hope of extracting from the votes of Tuesday some little consolation for their partizan friends. They might as well hope to draw blood from turnips, or elicit sunbeams from cucumbers. Their philosophical zeal must be its own reward, and it is charitably pleasant to reflect how the votaries of abstract science always appreciate this truth. The friends of the Union must be content with the vulgar recompense of the popular approbation, and leave to the discomfited enemy the consolations of their abstract arithmetic.

WHAT IT MEANS.

When four great States, on Tuesday last, arrayed themselves at the side of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, in a loyal support of the Constitution and laws which BLAIR and SEYMOUR are pledged to "trample in the dust," it meant something more than a mere partizan victory. It signified the rending of former political ties, by many thousands of life long Democrats, citizens not a few of whom have grown grey in the faithful support of the principles of JACKSON, SILAS WRIGHT and DOUGLAS, whom the recent debasement of their leaders has disgusted, and who, much as they have loved Democracy, would not quietly see its old glories dishonored, its purity stained, or its patriotism abjured. Let the friends of the Union everywhere remember, then, that for much of the glory of last Tuesday, the country is indebted to those loyal and thoughtful Democratic citizens, all of whom, with other hundreds of thousands more, will swell the popular anthem of Peace in November. Tuesday's triumphs were won for the Union, not for party, and the great popular wave, returning next month with vastly redoubled power, will bear up patriotism and loyalty, irrespective of old party obligations, submerging rebellion, repudiation, and their kindred villainies, forever.

THE CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.

We are not disposed to complain of the results of elections on Tuesday for members of Congress. From Pennsylvania we have eighteen of the twenty-four members at present. It is already certain that we have sixteen of the new members, and the Democrats six, leaving the XIIth (Woodward's) and the XXIst (Covode's) still in doubt. But the probabilities are all in favor of Mr. COVODE's success, the figures of the opposition giving him a majority of 25, while the latest dispatch at this writing claims his election by at least 400. Giving, therefore, to the opposition the benefit of the same probabilities as to the XXIst district, and the new delegation will stand seventeen to seven, a Republican loss of one.

In Ohio we gain one member in the IId and lose three in the Ist, IXth and XIIIth—a net loss of two, leaving the new delegation to stand fourteen Republicans to five Democrats, against sixteen to three in the present Congress.

Indiana elects certainly eight, and possibly nine, out of the eleven members, Republican, in the new delegation. At present we have eight to three.

Thus far, therefore, the Congressional elections show a net Union loss of only three members, which does not seriously impair our present working majority of about a hundred in the House of Representatives.

BLAIR'S BEST CARD TRUMPED.

The rebel Democracy, led by HAMPTON, BLAIR, SEYMOUR and FORREST, must hereafter exclude from their programme of revolution, under an Executive dictatorship, that element of popular support upon which they have relied in the election of a Democratic House of Representatives. Said BLAIR, in his BRODHEAD letter:

"The House of Representatives will contain a majority of Democrats from the North, and they will admit the Representatives elected by the white people of the South, and, with the co-operation of the President, it will not be difficult to compel the Senate to submit."

MR. BLAIR'S prophecy was as false as his propositions were treasonable. The elections in eight leading and powerful States of the North have positively secured a large Union majority in the popular branch of the XLIst Congress, to co-operate with a loyal Senate in the control of the law-making power. And, since the memorable declaration of the Chief Justice that the Supreme Court would not and will not invalidate Southern Reconstruction, we have never doubted the loyalty of the Judiciary to the letter and spirit of the Constitution and laws. Hereafter, therefore, the Democratic hope for another rebellion must rely only upon Executive usurpations to sustain it.

The next House will comprise, as now, two hundred and twenty-six members, seventeen seats from Virginia, Texas and Mississippi remaining vacant, or not, as their people shall prefer continued obstinacy or a cordial submission to the Federal policy. The Union majority in the present House is some one hundred and twenty odd. The elections already held for the next Congress are decisive in retaining our majority at nearly or quite the same figure. Of the sixty-six members already chosen in eight States, our net loss cannot exceed three, at the utmost, while it is not yet clear that we lose one. Of the States yet to elect, only West Virginia and New York are exposed to any possible danger of a change, which in no disastrous event can make a difference beyond five or six members more. All other States are as sure to return their present delegations without change as that the sun will shine. It is therefore a settled impossibility for MR. BLAIR'S rebel friends to obtain the control of the next House, even with an unbroken delegation from the seven Southern States in their favor.

So, for the remainder of this canvass, if there be any remainder to it for the routed friends of the "lost cause," they must advocate their policy of "restoration by the bayonets of the President," confessedly in defiance of a Congress thoroughly loyal and constitutional in both of its branches, and without the least hope of support from the Supreme Court. This leaves even Democratic assurance without a leg to stand upon, unless MR. BLAIR shall issue another BRODHEAD letter demanding the entire extirpation of these two co-ordinate branches of the government. We are by no means sure that he will not do even this.

MORE DEMOCRATIC LOYALTY!

Judge PIERREPONT, of New York, the writer of the annexed letter, has always been a Democrat of the strictest sect, and is now one of the Sachems of Tammany Hall. His letter denouncing BLAIR, his principles and his supporters, as libels upon the purer Democracy and as treason to the Union, is supported by a magnificent donation to the expenses of the canvass for GRANT, COLFAX and Peace. His language should be read and pondered by honest Democrats everywhere:

NO. 103 FIFTH AVENUE NEW YORK,
Saturday, Oct. 10, 1868.

To Alex. T. Stewart, Esq., Chairman of the Grant Committee, &c:

MY DEAR SIR: When Frank P. Blair, who had no claims whatever upon the Democratic party, was nominated in Tammany Hall, with such shouts of applause, just after proclaiming that "We must have a President who will trample into the dust" the laws of Congress, and when four Rebel generals made the chief ratification speeches in New York, my attention, as a war Democrat, was arrested by this remarkable exhibition.

Since then I have carefully noted the expressions of Southern journals, and the speeches of Southern politicians, from Wade Hampton on his return to Charleston, to the recent manifesto of B. H. Hill, and I find that every leading rebel in the Confederacy regards the expected election of Seymour and Blair as a complete vindication of the rebellion, and as certain to restore the South to every right which she had before the war, including the "trampling into dust," by military feet, the proclamation of Freedom and the XIVth amendment to the Constitution.

This contest presents a well-defined issue between the friends and enemies of our Government.

I cannot conceive how any intelligent man, who does not wish the Rebels returned to power, the Nation's faith violated, its debts repudiated, its name dishonored, its patriots insulted, and the "Lost Cause" restored, can vote against Grant.

In my judgment, the election of Seymour and Blair would forthwith confuse and paralyze our business, and reduce the value of our property one-half.

To aid in averting this calamity, I send you herewith Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000,) which I give to be used in the election of Gen. Grant in such manner as you and the Committee with whom you act may think best. And I remain, yours ever truly. EDWARDS PIERREPONT.

THE "Democratic" papers and orators continue to exhibit an absolute and self-stultifying inconsistency upon all matters connected with the Freedmen. For instance, compare the following extracts from the N. Y. World of last Friday:

SALISBURY, N. C., Oct. 8.—John Quincy Adams, of Massachusetts, addresssed five thousand people here to-night. He asked Col. Gowan and Gov. Vance if these people in good faith accepted the guaranteeing of all his just rights to the negro and the cultivation of friendly relations with him by the whites. The question was answered emphatically in the affirmative by those gentlemen and ratified by the entire audience.

GREENSBORO', N. C., October 8.—John Q. Adams passed thro' here yesterday on his way South. He was met at the depot by citizens of BOTH RACES en masse. He said he came in the spirit of fraternal kindness to all classes of citizens. THE COLOR OF THE SKIN MADE NO DIFFERENCE TO HIM. He was pleased to know of the amicable relations between the whites and that NO ANIMOSITY EXISTED BETWEEN THEM; and expressed a strong conviction that the Constitutional party, headed by Blair and Seymour, would triumph.

EDITORIAL FROM THE WORLD.—The tendency of conferring the ballot upon so large a body of negroes as live in the South, is to carry our politics through another turbulent cycle like that of the last thirty years * * * God Almighty has set his mark upon the skin and features of the negro in such a manner that the traces of his origin can never be obliterated. His remotest descendants will carry in their faces a constant advertisement of their barbarous origin and the servile condition of their ancestors * * * Any person who fancies that the existing social repugnance to the negro will ever be removed within any calculable period, IS A VISIONARY AND A FOOL. * * * Unlike our immigrant population, the negroes will never be lost or blended in the general population of the country. They will always stand out as a separate class, and, if they possess the ballot, will be constantly smarting under slights, &c., &c., &c.

ON SUNDAY LAST, "The Universe, a Catholic Review of the Times," published in Philadelphia, in the interests of the Democratic party, and having circulation mainly in that element which the Democratic leaders use for accomplishing their dishonest and criminal purposes, published an article, which we give entire:

The election for this State will take place on the day after to-morrow. Like good patriots and true members of the community, we hope that every citizen will vote early in the morning, late at night, and as often as possible during the day. If the right of suffrage is a great political right, it deserves as frequent exercise as it is possible to give it on the days of its test. It is true that there are malignant laws for the punishment of the patriotic act of voting more than once at one and the same election. But it is people without any public spirit that are afraid of these bad statutes. The citizens of true, national courage never shrink from the penalty of imprisonment and muletation attached to them; but skillfully and boldly they both circumvent and defy them—thus doing high honor to their manhood, and important service to their country. The only way to cover an opposing party with the shame of defeat is to vote as frequently against it as possible. As in the field of war against treason and invasion, every soldier is bound by all the laws of pride, justice, humanity and valor to give his musket no rest in sending bullets into the camp of the enemy; so in the more important contest of the scramble for the offices of the nation, each good citizen is under a most sacred duty to be as continuous as ever he can in putting votes in the ballot-box against the peculating faction that would have all the good things of this glorious Republic to itself. Therefore, we say, go to the polls early; go to them late, and go to them as often as you can during the day. Universal suffrage means nothing if it does not justify this.

This advice is as deliberately and solemnly given as it is infamous in moral principle, and criminal in the judgment of the laws. If, after the revelations of the past fortnight, anything was lacking to prove, not only the desperation, but the utter depravity of the Democratic leaders, this would supply the deficiency.

REV. THOS. H. STOCKTON, so well known and loved in this city, is dead, and his wonderful eloquence will be heard no more. Rev. Dr. Stockton was born at Mount Holly, N. J., June 4, 1808. He began to write for the press at the age of sixteen, and studied medicine in Philadelphia; but in May, 1829, commenced preaching in connection with the Methodist Protestant Church. In 1830 he was stationed at Baltimore, and in 1833 was elected Chaplain to Congress, and re-elected in 1835. From 1836 to 1839 he resided in Baltimore, compiled the prayer book of the Protestant Methodist Church, and was for a short time editor of the Methodist Protestant. He soon afterwards resigned and moved to Philadelphia, where he remained until 1847, as pastor and public lecturer. He then removed to Cincinnati, and was elected President of the Miami University, but declined, and in 1850 returned to Baltimore, where he was for five years associate pastor of the St. John's Methodist Church, and for three and a half years pastor of an associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. Since 1856 he resided in Philadelphia. He was again Chaplain of the House from 1858 to 1861, and in 1862 was Chaplain of the Senate. Rev. Dr. Stockton edited several periodicals, and published an edition of the New Testament in paragraph form.

IN THE recent South American earthquake, the only person lost belonging to the Wateree, was the boatkeeper of the gig. He was a Scotchman named Tait, who, in this life-scene, displayed the native heroism of his race. The frail craft and its sole occupant were carried out on the crest of the first tidal wave, and thrown back to the shore again with the returning foam of the liquid mountain. Tait saw at once and seemed to be fully aware of his impending doom. Seizing the gig's ensign in his right hand, he stood for a moment erect in the stern sheets of the boat; and waved to his comrades a last, adieu. All on board his ship looked on this tragic scene with breathless interest. He continued to wave the American flag in the midst of this elemental horror, but the second recoil of the angry waters dashed the gig to pieces, and swallowed the hardy sailor, so that he was seen no more.

A MEDICAL STUDENT of the Hospital Laribroisiere, named Curtois, 23 years of age, has just met an untimely death. He was engaged in dissecting a corpse, when he incautiously touched his lip, on which there was a small pimple. On his return home, he suddenly remembered what he had done, but too late, as he died the next day in great suffering.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

The Republican Executive County Committee tender their hearty congratulations to their Republican friends throughout the county upon the brilliant victory achieved by them on Tuesday last. In the face of a most vigilant opposition they have rolled up a majority of NINE THOUSAND—a majority unparalleled at any previous October election.

This glorious result is the effect of work—vigorous, steady, well-directed work. Without making much noise about it, the Republicans of each district have devoted themselves quietly and assiduously to the task of completing an efficient organization, and the fruit of the labor thus wisely expended is seen in a majority unprecedented except in the vote given to LINCOLN in 1860 and 1864.

Where every district has done so well, it would seem invidious to single out any for special commendation; but the Committee feel justified in pointing to the magnificent gain upon all previous majorities made by the Republicans of Allegheny City. They have worked with an indomitable will and purpose, and are amply rewarded by what they have accomplished and the admiration they have extorted from their political friends here and everywhere.

FRIENDS! We must and we can increase this majority to over ten thousand for GRANT! You have promised to do it, and you will!

But to do it, you must keep up your organizations and continue your work. Slacken not one moment in your zeal. The enemy is in full retreat; follow him up with vigor and earnestness. Keep up your meetings, increase your vigilance, keep your Assessment and Naturalization Committees actively on the watch, and prepare to bring out, on the 3rd of November, every voter not out last Tuesday.

The reputation of the party in this county, for zeal and efficiency, is involved in the result of the forthcoming election for President in this county. The Republicans of the State and Nation look with pride upon this Gibraltar of their party faith, and we must justify their hopes of us by giving to GRANT a majority equal to that of a State.

Stand to your arms! Less than three weeks of work remain to be done, and whatsoever your hands find to do, do it with your might!

RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman.
JOHN H. STEWART, Secretary.

VICTORY.

From the rocky coast of Maine,
From far Nebraska's plain,
From Indiana too comes the cry,
From the Ohio to the lake!
Where e'er there's aught at stake,
Comes the thundering shout of victory!

Hurrah then for the right!
Hurrah for Freedom's might!
Hurrah for voters staunch and true:
Three cheers for Grant that's great,
And the glorious Keystone State,
Ever steadiest to the red, white and blue.

God bless the noble band
In the Hoosier's father land,
God bless the Buckeyes—farther east;
And the hunters on the plain,
With the Yankees up in Maine:
And have mercy on the party just deceased.

A SLIGHT COLD, COUGH,

Or SORE THROAT may be checked if a reliable remedy is applied at once, but if neglected very soon preys upon the lungs, and the result may prove fatal. The past few weeks of changeable temperature and cold rains are fruitful sources of troubles of the lungs, throat and chest. If you are attacked by a cold, no matter how slight, use at once

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP,

Which is an old and well tried remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, and all Affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is entirely free from any deleterious ingredient, and can be given with perfect safety to the youngest child.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Gives sure and almost immediate relief to hoarseness and that annoying sensation, tickling, in the throat. If you would obtain a reliable remedy, be sure and call for

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP.

If your Druggist does not keep it, ask him to get it for you.

COUNSEL FOR THE CARELESS.

The body is a machine, and carelessness in its management is as sure to lead to evil results as carelessness in the management of a steam engine. Yet the last thing that most people think of is the protection of this delicate piece of the Creator's handiwork from the subtle causes of disease by which it is surrounded. It is no easy thing to repair the system when in ruins; but there is no difficulty in fortifying it against many of the dangers to which it is exposed. Guard against nervous debility. At the first symptom of this fore-runner of more serious ailments, sustain the flagging energies of nature with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Take it regularly and persistently, until bodily vigor is thoroughly restored. It creates an appetite, promotes—or, it might as properly be said compels—the complete digestion of the food, regulates the secretive action of the liver, tones and invigorates the bowels, improves the condition of the blood, and gives firmness to the nerves. Upon a system thus strengthened and regulated in all its important functions, the fogs and exhalations of autumn, pregnant with the elements of intermittent fever can make little or no impression. Whoever supposes that fever and ague is an unavoidable evil in certain districts, at this season of the year, is egregiously mistaken. As effectually as a draught of cold air is shut out by the closing of a door, this complaint, and all disorders of a miasmatic type, may be prevented by the use of the BITTERS. When sickness can be avoided by a means so safe and simple, is it not the merest fatuity to neglect the proffered antidote? Regarded either as a preventive or a cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, intermittent fever, nervous disorders, general debility, or constipation of the bowels, this pure vegetable preparation stands alone.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative in all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable, and so most surely fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the value of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at Dr. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 140 Wood St.

AN AUTOGRAPH LETTER FROM

GEORGE D. PRENTICE, Esq.,

Editor of the "Louisville Journal."

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 5th, 1866.

DR. LIGHTHILL—DEAR SIR: I am very sorry to learn that you contemplate leaving Louisville at the end of the present week. I earnestly wish that your engagement elsewhere might permit you to remain here for a longer time.

Your sojourn among us, Dr. Lighthill, will be long remembered by our people. It has been a blessing to many. You have treated me and a female member of my family with great success. You seem to me to understand, as by intuition, the character of a malady and its best remedy. You have a multitude of patients in this city, and I have not seen or heard of one to whom you held out the promise of relief without rendering it. Your entire practice among us has been a brilliant success, and I cheerfully recommend you to my friends and the public at large as a physician deserving the utmost confidence.

Hoping that you may live long to be a blessing to additional thousands of the afflicted, I am, very truly, yours, GEORGE D. PRENTICE.

TESTIMONIAL FROM THE

REV, JOHN NOTT, D. D.,

Professor in Union College, Schenectady.

SCHENECTADY, January 17th, 1866.

DR. LIGHTHILL—SIR: Having been cured by you of a discharge in an ear, which has been very offensive of late, and, far back as I can remember, always more or less so, and having been entirely restored to hearing since under your care, I feel that I cannot withhold this acknowledgment from any use it may be to others, especially as I have applied in vain to my family physician and other physicians of reputation. Yours truly,

JOHN NOTT.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, October 14, 1868.

Gold had touched 136¾ early this morning before the regular session, but afterward became strong at 137¼ to 137⅜, and closed strong at 137⅜, with an upward tendency. Gold being scarce, the bulls are trying again to lock up gold and make it scarce. Although gold may rule much lower in November, it is cheap at present prices now, especially when it can be loaned from day to-day at from 1-64 to ⅛ per cent.

Government bonds are very strong, and large orders are here from Europe to buy either 1865 or 1867; the tone of the market is very bullish, and the amount of bonds on the market are comparatively small when considered the enormous speculative transactions in these securities.

In stocks, a large upward movement is to be reported in nearly all the different shares. Fort Wayne alone is neglected. In Erie there is a strong party intending to put up the price as high as it ever was before, and our information from yesterday's issue will show that we were correct. Ohio and Mississippi although higher did not reach up this evening to the highest quotation of this morning, nevertheless the force of the upward movement is not yet spent, and higher prices are looked for. Merchants Union is stronger on presumption that an agreement with the American will be entered into which will make the stock more remunerative. In Chicago and North Western the clique have advanced their quotations to 97¾, and Cleveland will likely reach 95. Rock Island is firm at 107; likewise Reading and New York Central.

Money is easy, but business is still dull.

New York Dry Goods Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, October 14.—There is rather an improved inquiry for dry goods but the market is far from being active. Prices steady for domestic cotton: we quote heavy brown sheeting, best makes, at 15a16c; standard prints, 12½c. for American, Allens and Richmonds; America W, 13½c; Cocheco, same price; Amoskeag, 13c. Heavy brown drills scarce and in request for expor, at 17c, but are worth 18c to job. Domestic poplins in request and the Washington kept sold ahead at 80c. Imported dress goods are selling at extremely low rates; good lines of Bradford, plain, Chenes, and plaid styles going as low as 50c.

Cincinnati Iron Market.

CINCINNATI, October 13.—The demand is active for all kinds of pig iron, and especially for No. 1 foundry, with a firm market. Malleable iron is in steady but not active demand at previous prices. We quote: Pig—No. 1 charcoal foundry iron, $40; No. 2 do, $37; charcoal mill iron $36 to $37; stone coal iron, $36 to $38; Tennessee cold blast, $45; Missouri, $47; car wheel iron, $60 to $63; blooms, $100 to $105 per on.

Chicago Cattle Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 14. Cattle fairly active and higher, at $3,75a5,00 for common to extra choice cows, $5,35a5,62½ for fair to medium, and $6,10a6,50 for good steers. Hogs: good shipping and packing demand, and 10a15c higher; sales at $7,85a8,00 for fair to choice grades; extra heavy smooth lots sold at $8,00a8,05; receipts 8,335 head.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, October 14, 1868.

The general markets continue very quiet, being devoid of a single feature worthy of special notice. The demand for almost everything is restricted mainly to supplying immediate wants, and, as a consequence, the volume of business is comparatively light; in values, however, there are no changes of importance, though, as a general thing, the tendency is downward.

GROCERIES—The market has been quiet during the past week, owing in part to the interest taken in the election, though prices generally are firm, and Sugars are strong and a shade higher. A good trade is anticipated during the balance of the month. We quote as follows:

SUGARS—Cuba, 12¼c for good grocery 12¾ to 13c for prime; and 14c for choice; Porto Rico—good, 13c; prime, 13½; choice, 14½ to 15c; Clarified Cuba, 14 to 14½c. Refined—Standard Hard, 17c; A, 16c; B, 15¾c; Extra C, 15¼c; Sugar House, 10½ to 11.

COFFEE—Rio ranges all the way from 21½ to 26¼c for common to strictly prime. Java 37 to 38c.

SYRUPS—Lovering's $1,10; Silver Drips, $1,10; White Drips, $1,20; medium brands, 75 to 85c; common, 60 to 65c; Booth & Edgar Syrup, $1.

RICE—Rangoon, good, 10½c; prime to choice, 11 to 11¼c; Carolina, 12 to 12½c.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, 95 to $1,05; Cuba, 65 to 70c; Porto Rico, 75 to 90c.

SPICES—Cassia, 80 to 85c; Cloves 55c; Pepper, 38c; Allspice, 35c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

STARCH—Madison, 8c; Silver Gloss, 12½c, and Corn Starch, 13½c.

FRUITS—Layer Rasins, $4,75 per box; Valentia, 20c per lb; Prunes, 17c; Currants, 12½c for new.

BAR LEAD—12½c; Shot, $3,50 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbit's," 12c; "Oakely's," 11½c; Rosin, 5 to 7c; "Dobbin's," 15c.

CANDLES—Mould, 16c; Star, 23c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$8,00 per case.

BI CARB SODA—$8,50 per 100.

FISH—White Fish, $9,00. Lake Herring, $5,00; Mackerel No. 1, $22; No. 2, $18,00; No. 3, $13,50; in half barrels, 50c more.

APPLES—In good supply and dull but unchanged; regular sales at $2,50 to $3,50 per bbl.

POTATOES—Peach Blows and Neshannocks are dull and lower, with sales reported to-day at 85 to 90c per bushel. Prime fresh receipts of Jersey Sweets are quoted at $5,25 to $5,50, and old receipts at $4,50 to $5.

CHEESE—Is steady with regular sales at 17 to 20, as to quality.

BUTTER—Continues to accumulate, and the market is very dull, with a drooping tendency. We now quote prime packed 35 to 36c, and prime Roll at 37 to 38c.

EGGS—Dull but unchanged at 22c, for fresh packed.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and nominally unchanged, and the receipts are only moderate; No. 1 Spring $1,75, and No. 1 Winter, $2. Barley is in good demand, and as the offerings are light prices are well sustained; we quote Spring at $2,00 to $2,10, and Fall at $2,15 to $2,20. Corn is steady but unchanged; saled at $1,15 to $1,18 for mixed to prime Yellow. Oats firmer, in consequence of limited arrivals, and 66 is the standard price for car load lots—68 to 70 in store. Rye, $1,40 to $1,45.

HAY—Baled Hay is quoted at $28 to $30, for good to strictly prime. Wagon Hay ranges from $28 to $38 as to quality.

PROVISIONS—Bacon unchanged at 13½ for Shoulders; 16c to 18 for Ribbed, and Clear Sides, and 20c to 20½c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard 20 to 20½c, for prime kettle rendered. Mess Pork, $30,50 to $31.

LARD OIL—Firm but unchanged at $1,25 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

SEEDS—Clover Seed is dull—no established prices. Flaxseed is firm and in demand at $2,50. Timothy Seed is dull, and nominal at $3,00 to $3,25.

SALT—Dull; sales of Allegheny River brands at $1,75 by the car load, and $1,90 to $2 in store.

CHESTNUTS—Are lower under the influence of increased arrivals, and we now quote at $7 per bushel.

FLOUR—Is quiet and unchanged. Spring Wheat brands $8,50 to $9,25. The Mills continue to quote at $10,30 for Extra Family in bbls, and $10,00 in sacks, and Doublo Extra at $10,80 in bbls, and $10,50 in sacks. Rye flour $8,50.

WHISKY—Is firm with a steady demand at $1,25 for Rectified, and $1,35 for Highwines.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, October 14, 1868.

CRUDE.

The Crude market continues quiet and unchanged. Some three thousand bbls are reported as having been sold for October at 12; late in the day, however, it was offered at that figure without finding buyers, and we are cognizant of one thousand bbls having been offered at 11¾, with 11¾ bid. From the above it will be seen that quotations may be fairly given at 11¾ to 12, showing a slight decline, and as already intimated the demand even at the reduction was by no means urgent, as buyers anticipate that by holding off they will be able to force a still further decline.

REFINED.

The Refined market was also dull and a little weak to-day, and early deliveries have still further declined. Spot oil, which was quoted yesterday at 29¼ to 29½c, sold to-day at 29c, and the close was offered at 28¾ to 28¾c; while the last half of October, which was held pretty firmly yesterday at 30c, sold to-day at 29½c. There were sales and "settlements," amounting to some three thousand barrels at 29c, on spot, and 29½c for the last half of October. We can also report a sale of 3,000 bbls, 500 each from January to July, 1869, at 30c. We can report a continued fair western demand with sales of 50 and 100 barrel lots at previous quotations.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FROM WESTERN KANSAS.

ON THE PLAINS, AMONG THE BUFFALOES, Oct. 1, 1868.

On Wednesday morning an excursion party of about two hundred and forty, mostly Presbyterians, (for the party was got up for the benefit of the Lawrence Presbyterian Church, N. S.,) about forty of whom are ladies, left Lawrence for the present western terminus of the Kansas Pacific Railway. A pleasanter set of people rarely get together; we have plenty of provisions and live well without being dependent upon these far western hotels.

Our trip up was novel and exciting. The first night we lay at Ellsworth, 220 miles west of the Missouri, the farthest point I had ever reached before. That day's ride was through the settled and well known part of Kansas, of which I need not speak particularly now. Next morning we started at daybreak and entered upon what are called the plains—a vast expanse of exceedingly beautiful country, covered with buffalo grass, but almost treeless—not quite level but nearly so; rich in soil, but scarce of water.

Our party had about seventy rifles, so as to be prepared for whatever buffaloes we might encounter. Until we passed Fort Hays, two hundred and eighty-eight miles from the Missouri, we saw none. Soon after we saw a small herd far off over the plain; but when we reached the three hundred and twentieth mile post, the cry of Buffaloes! was raised, and looking out of the north side of the car I witnessed a scene such as I have heard of, but never expected to see—buffaloes by tens of thousands, dotting the distant swell, covering it for miles, until, in places, they caused it to look black. They were too far off for the purposes of our sportsmen, so we pushed on, and, as mile after mile of new view opened up, still the country was covered with buffaloes. By and by the train neared the vast and apparently interminable herd, so that we were in danger of running over some of them, and the reports of firearms from the car windows was fast and lively. Our people, ladies and all, became intensely excited, but for a good while the firing was unavailing. Very likely some were wounded. So we passed on our way at the rate of about fifteen miles an hour, for forty miles, past and through one continuous herd. Often, at a single sweep of the eye, we could take in a range of probably fifty square miles more thickly covered with buffaloes than ever you saw cattle in a pasture. They appeared to be quietly and diligently feeding, except when frightened by the proximity of the train—then they would scamper off with that rolling gallop peculiar to those huge and ponderous monsters, and which is much more remarkable for vigor than grace.

About sunset, a little detached herd of about half a dozen ran across the track just in front of the locomotive. Shots from perhaps fifty rifles were directed at them, and one big bull fell dead. That was our first and only one for that day. Merely disemboweled, he was hoisted whole into a freight car in the train, to be so transported to Lawrence. There was some cheering just then. We then went on to Sheridan, 405 miles west of the Missouri at Kansas City, the present terminus of this road, where we lay till this morning.

This day has been devoted to hunting, as we slowly made our way homeward. We found the game as plenty as it was yesterday, and our marksmen did their work on foot. Up to this time (3 P. M.) they have killed twelve or thirteen, nearly all of which have been secured. A few were too far from the cars. It is exciting sport, and a good place for lookers-on like myself; for when we chose to do so we could stay in the cars and watch our hunters until they looked like specks in the distance.

We saw many antelopes, beautiful and fleet animals, as graceful and gentle as the buffalo is ungainly and savage. Occasionally a wolf showed itself, and prairie dogs were everywhere. We saw, probably, more than a hundred thousand buffaloes.

I shall have more to say about these plains at a more convenient season. C.

A Curious Story—A Man Choked Under Startling Circumstances.

Yesterday a German named Cadell was engaged to do some work in a butcher shop in the Market square. While so engaged a neighbor came in and asked why he had not returned a hatchet he had borrowed from him a few days before. Cadell replied that he had returned it. This the neighbor denied, and notwithstanding Cadell's protestations, insisted that he had not done so. Cadell grew considerably excited over the accusation, and after some words with the neighbor, said very loudly, "I did bring it back to you the very night I got it, and I hope God will choke me dead with this piece of meat if I didn't." At the same time he placed in his mouth a piece of raw beef, which without chewing he bolted. The beef evidently lodged in the man's windpipe, for at once he began to gasp as if for breath, and to grow black in the face. A number of persons gathered about, but none of them seemed able to render the man any assistance, and it seemed as though he would die in earnest. Somebody had the presence of mind to run to the Police Station, and officer McDonald went down. He opened the man's mouth, using considerable force to do so, and running his fingers down his throat, pulled out the meat. A shower of cold water brought Cadell to, but he had about as close an escape from death as one would wish for. As he came to his senses again, Cadell looked at his neighbor, and in a most sorrowful tone said: "I did bring back your hatchet." The neighbor concluded by this time he had done so.—From the Milwaukee Wisconsin, Oct. 8.

Catholic Church and "Round" Dances.

A pastoral letter from Archbishop Spalding has just been published, in which we find the following paragraph:

In their pastoral letter to the faithful the Fathers of the Council admonish them to abstain in future from certain fashionable dances, commonly called waltzes, round, or German dances, which, as recently practiced, are shocking to every sense of delicacy and dangerous to morals. The more effectually to carry out this warning, and to remove all pretext for viewing such dances as harmless, we have strictly enjoined that they be neither taught nor even practised for recreation among those of the same sex in any of our colleges, academies, or schools, whether conducted by Catholics or placed under Catholic auspices.

OVER two thousand applications for admission have been received by Mr. Cornell since the publication of his letter stating that students at the Cornell University would be able to support themselves by manual labor. It is stated that some of these applicants, if they possess sufficient elementary training to enable them to enter the lowest class, can be furnished with occupation a part of the time, provided they are mechanics. Others can be employed on the college farm, but some time must elapse before all can be admitted.

Hints to Husbands.

1. Let every husband be persuaded that there are two ways of governing a family; the first is by expression of that will that belongs to force; the second, by the power of mildness, to which even strength will yield. When a husband accustoms himself to say "I will," he loses his empire.

2. Avoid unnecessarily contradicting your wife. When we smell at a rose, it is to imbibe the sweetness of its odor; we likewise look for anything that is amiable in man. Whoever is often contradicted feels an insensible aversion for the person who contradicts.

3. Never take upon yourself to be a censor upon your wife's morals, nor read lectures to her except affectionately. Let your preaching be a good example, and practice virtue yourself in love with it.

4. Command her attention by being always attentive to her; never exact anything from her that you would not be willing that she should require from you; appear always flattered by the little she does for you, which will excite her to kind offices.

5. All women are more or less vain; in some their vanity is insufferable. Never wound this vanity; not even in the most trifling instance. A husband may have more sense than his wife, but he should never seem to know it.

6. When a woman gives wrong counsel never make her feel that she has done so, but lead her on by degrees to what is rational, with mildness and gentleness; when she is convinced, leave her all the merit of having found out what was just and reasonable.

7. When a wife is out of temper behave obligingly to her; if she is unkind, never retort or find fault with her, with a view to humble her.

8. Choose well your male friends; have but few, and be cautious of following their advice in all matters, particularly if inimical to the foregoing instructions.

9. Cherish neatness without luxury, and pleasure without excess; dress with taste, and particularly with modesty. Such things may appear trifling, but they are of more importance than imagined.

10. Never be curious unnecessarily to pry into your wife's affairs, but obtain her confidence by that which, at all times, you repose in her. Always preserve order and economy; avoid being out of temper, and be careful never to scold. By this means she will find her own house more pleasant than any other.

11. Seem always to obtain information from her, especially before company, though you may pass yourself for a simpleton. Never forget that a husband owes his importance to that of his wife; if he degrades her he injures himself. Leave her entirely mistress of her actions, to go and come whenever she thinks fit. A husband ought to make his company so amiable to his wife that she will not be inclined to seek any other; then she will not look for pleasure abroad, if he does not partake of it with her. —Auburn Morning News.

Beauty and Brains.

[From the Saturday Review.]

Men do not care for brains in excess in women. They like a sympathetic intellect which can follow them, and seize their thoughts as quick as they are uttered, but they do not much care for any clear or special knowledge of facts; and even the most philosophic among them would rather be set right in a classical quotation, an astronomical calculation, or the exact bearing of a political question by a lovely being in tarlatane whom he was graciously unbending to instruct. Neither do they want anything strong-minded. To most men, indeed, the feminine strong mindedness that can discuss immoral problems without blushing, and despise religious observances as useful only to weak souls, is a quality as unwomanly as a well developed biseps or a huge fist would be. It is sympathy, not antagonism; it is companionship, not rivalry, still less supremacy, that they like in woman; and some women with brains as well as learning—for the two are not the same thing—understand this, and keep their blue stockings well covered by their petticoats.

Others, enthusiasts for the freedom of thought and intellectual rights, show theirs defiantly, and meet with their reward. Men shrink from them. Even clever men, able to meet them on their own ground, do not feel drawn to them, while all but high-class minds are dwarfed and humiliated by their learning and their moral courage. And this is what no man likes to feel in the presence of a woman, and because of her superiority. But the brains most useful to women, and most befitting their work in life, are those which show themselves in common sense, in good judgment, and that kind of patient courage which enables them to bear small crosses and great trials alike with dignity and good temper. Mere intellectual culture, however valuable it may be in itself, does not reach to the worth of this kind of moral power, for as the true domain of woman is the home, and her way of ordering her domestic life the best of her faculties, mere intellectual culture does not help in this, and, in fact, is often a hindrance rather than a help.—Saturday Review.

The New Postage Stamps.

The Postmaster General has just awarded the contract for the supply of stamps to the Postoffice Department, for the ensuing four years to the National Bank Note Company of New York. The new stamps will be somewhat smaller than those in use at present, but they are of a superior style and finish, with a novelty in design. The two-cent stamp contains an engraving of a post-boy on horseback in full speed. The three-cent has a locomotive under full head of steam, the great carrier of our domestic service. The five cent stamp contains a head of Washington. The ten-cent, the finest of all in design and execution, has a miniature engraving of the Declaration of Independence, executed with such delicacy and percision that the picture suffers nothing under the magnifying glass. The twelve-cent stamp has an ocean steamship, and the thirty-cent has a finely executed engraving of the surrender of Burgoyne. When it is considered that over a million stamps are issued daily, the importance of this contract is at once evident.

MIRAMON'S wife, who lives now in Brussels, is a tall, slender, black-haired lady of thirty, though she looks much older. She speaks very bitterly of the Courts of France and Austria for allowing her and her children, as she says, to starve. Well-informed correspondents, however, assert that her stories about her privations, and about the pretended meanness of the aforesaid courts, are groundless; that she has already received plenty of money from them, and uses these stories about her poverty only to extort additional sums from them. The King of Belgium has refused to give her anything.

THE Vincennes, Ind., Gazette says that a train loaded with jackasses was to pass through Salem, Ind., a few days ago. The telegraphic operator circulated a report in the town that a large delegation of Democrats, with music, was to pass on the train at the hour given. Crowds of Democrats gathered at the depot ready to cheer. As the train moved up a venerable possessor of a couple of long ears stuck his head out of the stock car and gave a long, agonizing hee-haw that fairly shook the hills around, and consternation seized the crowd of Democrats, and they instantly disappeared.

Formal Opening.—The formal opening of the Federal street and Pleasant Valley Passenger Railroad will take place to-day at eleven o'clock. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present on the occasion from W. M. Claney, Esq., Secretary of the Board of Directors.

Queer.—The rapid disappearance of large numbers of voters from our city yesterday was surprising. We heard of one hotel proprietor who has been rejoicing for the last ten days over a full house. Yesterday he was bewailing the loss of just one hundred male boarders, who had departed eastward.

Slight Fire.—Yesterday, about one o'clock, a slight fire occurred in the match factory of A. J. Griggs on Strawberry alley, above Grant street. An alarm was struck from box 31, Neptune engine house, which brought the fire department promptly to the scene. Their services were not needed, however, as the flames were extinguished with buckets of water before their arrival.

Gun Recovered.—Yesterday morning Mr. James McCulley, of the Nineteenth ward, appeared at the Mayor's office and stated that he had lost a valuable shot gun, and he believed it to be in the possession of Cooney Boodey. A search warrant was issued and placed in the hands of officer Herron, who proceeded to execute it, and recovered the gun and arrested Boodey. Mr. McCulley refused to prosecute, and the man was discharged.

We Take the following paragraph out of the editorial columns of the Lawrence Republican. We like the compliment paid our friend, but must charge the editor with selfishness in his desire to rob our sister city of one of her most appreciated citizens: "Both we and our readers are greatly indebted to Mr. J. C. Copley, of the Pittsburgh Gazette, for the interesting letters he has furnished us, descriptive of the Presbyterian excursion. Mr. Copley is forming a very favorable acquaintance with our citizens. We wish he would locate in our midst permanently." Mr. Copley is now furnishing letters to the Gazette from the West, one of which we publish to-day.

Subsiding.

The excitement consequent upon the result of the election, which was at a high pitch Tuesday evening, has almost entirely subsided, and the good people of our usually active and busy city, have returned to their workshops, counting-rooms, offices, &c., and gone to work.

The great mass of people who thronged City Hall and the "Old Drury," Tuesday night, were nowhere visible yesterday, but the politicians and those pecuniarily interested in the result of the State and county elections, in consequence of wagers, crowded the telegraph and newspaper offices up to nine o'clock last night in anxious expectation.

Alleged Shoplifter Arrested.

Eliza Cooke, proprietress of a millinery establishment on Liberty street, was arrested Tuesday afternoon, charged with larceny, on oath of R. H. Palmer, of the firm of R. H. Palmer & Co., Market street. It is alleged that the accused entered the store of the prosecutor, and while being shown some goods was detected in the act of secreting several bunches of artificial flowers under her cloak. After being arrested, a search warrant was issued and her premises overhauled, resulting in the discovery of a large quantity of goods bearing the marks of Palmer & Co., which she is charged with stealing. She was held for a hearing.

End of a Honeymoon.

A very neatly dressed, and rather handsome young girl, called at the Mayor's office yesterday and stated that she had been married about two months ago to Joseph Ripling. They lived happily together until a few days since, when the husband suddenly disappeared and has not been heard of since. The wife thus left destitute, believes that her husband has left the city for the purpose of ridding himself of her, and accordingly seeks the protection and aid of the law, in bringing him back, As no clue could be given of the probable whereabouts of the delinquent, nothing could be done immediately, but the officers are on the alert for him, and making every endeavor to secure his arrest.

The Fifth Avenue Robbery.

Mr. James R. Reed, of the firm of J. R. Reed & Co., returned from Cleveland on Tuesday, whither he had gone to identify the silver chains stolen from the store by Crosby and Thompson, the circumstances of which we published a few days since. It seems that the boys, while in this city, became acquainted with a noted thief who persuaded them to commit the robbrry in the manner they did. They plead very hard to be let off, and as it was their first offence, Mr. Reed declined to prosecute, after giving them some good advice, and receiving their promise to return home and never again be guilty of a like offence. The man who instigated them to the commission of the crime was held and will be prosecuted as a common thief.

THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

[Before Judge Sterrett.]

Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning, Judge Sterrett on the bench, when jury trials were resumed. The following business was transacted:

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Lawrence Hackett, Stephen Noonan and Rose Noonan, indicted for felonious assault and battery on Martin Welsh, at Sewickley, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty as to Hackett and Stephen Noonan, and not guilty as to Rose Noonan.

The jury in the case of Michael McAnnally and James Nary, tried on Friday on an indictment for larceny, of a sum of money from Richard Deitrich, brought in a verdict of not guilty, and the prisoner was discharged.

A motion for a new trial was made in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Augustus Hively, indicted for indecent assault, who was convicted on Thursday last.

Patrick McManns was put on trial for an aggravated assault and battery on his wife, Mary McManns. Patrick came home on the 6th day of July last, in a bad humor, and, cutting a "hickory switch," whipped his wife until she was black and blue. The jury found him guilty, and he was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and give approved security in $500 to keep the peace for two years.

Mrs. Miranda Palmer, an alleged shoplifter, was placed on trial for the larceny of a pocket book, from the stand of a market gardener in the Diamond market. Jury out.

The same defendant was placed on trial for the larceny of ribbons from Eaton's trimming store, No. 17 Fifth street. She was arrested for the larceny of the pocket book. A search warrant was issued, and while search was being made of her rooms in a house off Diamond alley, the ribbons alleged to have been stolen were found. On trial.

The New Style Postage Stamps.

The following is a description of the new style postage stamps which are soon to be put in use: The two cent stamp represents a post-boy on a horse running at full speed, illustrating the fact that this stamp is mostly used for dispatch letters. On the three cent stamp there is a finely engraved locomotive. This is surrounded by lines of lightning, indicating the speed with which letters are carried on which this stamp is used. The five cent stamp has an excellent portrait of Washington. The ten cent stamp has an excellent microscopical copy of the painting of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, bringing in the Rotunda at Washington. The twelve cent stamp, mostly used for foreign postage, has a picture of a steamer at sea. The thirty cent postage stamp has a copy of a painting of the surrender of Burgoyne, hanging in the rotunda of the national capitol. One of the characteristics of the stamps manufactured by this company is that the ink used prevents persons washing and using the stamps the second time. The fibre in the centre of the stamp is broken completely, and they adhere better, while the ink of cancellation sinks into the paper. The engravings on these stamps are remarkable copies of historical pictures, and bear the test of microscopical examination.

The "Sere and Yellow Leaves" are falling in every direction. The trees are fast losing their green foliage, and will soon be scudding under bare poles. Everything serves to remind us that fall is here, and we would remind our many readers that Messrs. Palmer & Phillips, No. 60 Fifth avenue, have received an immense stock of Fall goods, comprising everything desirable in the line of boots, shoes, gums, carpets, oil cloths, clothing, blankets, quilts, shawls, fancy blankets, umbrellas, shirts, drawers, cutlery, hats, hosiery, suspenders, collars, toilet soaps, mirrors, fancy goods, and notions in endless variety, which they are disposing of at auction prices, by private sales day and evening, at the Opera House Auction Rooms, No. 60 Fifth avenue.

Remember to call before making your purchases elsewhere, it will pay.

Opera House.

The political excitement having abated considerably since Tuesday, the attendance at places of amusement is increasing rapidly. The Opera House was well filled last night by a fashionable audience. Mr. John E. Owens, the inimitable and unapproachable comedian, is the great attraction. To-night he appears as Joshua Butterby, in the "Victims," and as Solon Shingle, in which character he excels. With Mr. Owens, and the excellent company to support him, the Opera House is a charming place to spend an evening.

Delmonico Restaurant.—A new eating saloon under the above name has been started by Mr. H. Ruh, a practical cook, who will personally superintend the culinary department of the establishment. Mr. Ruh has refitted and refurnished his establishment, and is now fully prepared to supply all who favor him with their patronage with the most palatable viands of the season. His bar is furnished with the choicest liquors of every description, and the best brands of ale and beer. Give him a call.

The place to get White Lime, Calcined Plaster, Hydraulic Cement, is at Ecker & Caskey's, 107 First street.

Ear, Throat, Lungs and Catarrh.

The Established Permanent Medical and Surgical Institute and Consultation Rooms of Dr. Keyser, now in full operation for three years past, is one in every respect worthy of the confidence of all who may be ailing with any of those obstinate chronic maladies, designated at the head of this article. The Doctor has spared no cost or exertions in fully qualifying himself with every appliance which science and experience have found useful in the practice of his art, or in the cure of disease; and he takes pleasure in referring the afflicted to the thousands of published testimonials in proof of the cures that he has made. The Doctor's system of practice is peculiar in itself, being of that kind which gradually, but surely rebuilds the failing and decaying powers of life, and he feels warranted in promising cures in many cases which have been regarded as hopeless. No system of medicine has ever had the confidence of the public to the same extent of that practiced by the Doctor in the alleviation and cure of diseases of a chronic and debilitating character. Those long and lingering maladies of the eye and ear and throat which contiually perplex and worry their victims, have by recent investigations been brought under the rule of sure and complete control. A few minutes' consultation in his office will convince the most skeptical of the truths which we have recited. Besides, the Doctor's great medicine emporium, at 140 Wood street, contains every particular medicinal herb, plant and essence known to be valuable in the cure of disease. With untiring zeal and energy has he devoted his life to that department of medical science which embraces within its scope all chronic and obstinate diseases, and he can point with conscious pride to hundreds of cures, once seemingly hopeless, in the city of Pittsburgh, now restored to health and vigor.

When the PLANTATION BITTERS were first made known to the American people some seven years ago, it was supposed they were an entirely new thing, and had never before been used. So far as their general use in the United States is concerned, this may be true. It is also true that the same Bitters were made and sold in the Island of St. Thomas, over forty years ago, as any old planter, merchant or sea captain doing business in the West Indies will tell you. It is distinctly within my recollection that on the return of my father (who was a sea captain, and doing an extensive trade in the tropics,) he would invariably have the Bitters among the ship's stores, and our family sideboard was nevar without them. For any sickness, it matters not how severe or trifling, the decanter of these Bitters, by a different name, was always resorted to as a sovereign remedy.

CLIPPINGS.

THE Newburyport, Mass., Herald says the potato rot in that vicinity was probably never worse than this season. Take all the potato fields within ten miles of that place, and their product would not pay the cost of production. The Jackson Whites, the Sebecs, the Oronos and other favorite varieties will be almost an entire failure. Acres of them will not pay for digging, and never be dug. The red potatoes are less affected, and some of the new varieties do better. Among the Early Rose no disease has been discovered, and the Goodrich are very free from rot.

WHEN the Georgia Legislature were debating the subject of the expulsion of the colored members from that body, one of them made the following offer:

Now, I will make the proposition to every member in this House that I will read the Bible in more languages than you can, if you will agree to leave the hall, or I will go out if you can read it in more languages than I can.

The white members did not accept the offer, and the learned colored man had to vacate his seat.

A STUDENT at a certain military academy had copied a drawing of a scene in Venice, and in copying the title he had spelt the name of the city "Vennice." The drawing-master put his pen through the superfluous letter, observing—"Don't you know, sir, there is but one 'hen' in Venice?" On which the youth burst out laughing. Being asked what he was laughing about, he replied he was thinking how uncommonly scarce eggs must be there. The master, in wrath, reported him to the colonel in command, a Scotchman. He, on hearing the disrespectful reply, without in the least perceiving the point of the joke, observed, "An' a verra natural observation, too."

ONCE A WEEK says: Here is a row of ordinary capital letters and figures—

SSSSXXXXZZZZ33338888

They are such as are made up of two parts of equal shapes. Look carefully at these and you will perceive that the upper halves of the characters are a very little smaller than the lower halves—so little that an ordinary eye will declare them to be of equal size. Now turn the page upside down, and, without any careful looking, you will see that this difference in size is very much exaggerated—that the real top half of the letter is very much smaller than the bottom half. It will be seen from this that there is a tendency in the eye to enlarge the upper part of any object upon which it looks. We might draw two circles of unequal size, and so place them that they should appear equal.

AMERICANS IN JAPAN.—Letters from Yeddo state that the Japanese Government has appointed Henry W. Grinnell, late a Lieutenant in the United States navy, to an important position in the navy of the Mikado. The title conferred is that of Inspector General of the Japanese Navy, and the salary named is $16,000 per annum. This appointment gives power to arrange school ships, build dock yards, &c., all to be modeled and regulated in accordance with the most approved foreign system. It is calculated that, out of more than one hundred steamers now owned by the Japanese princes, at least thirty can be relied upon for active service in the new establishment. It is also reported that a similar post in the army has been offered to Gen. Paul Frank, late acting United States Consul at Cobe (Hiogo.)

FANNY FERN tells the following story of a joke of hers which was taken literally in England:

"Some time since I wrote an article on royalty and the way it was fenced in, hedged about, and badgered generally; and mentioned in this connection Queen Victoria, whom I believe in and respect for her womanly influence thrown on the side of virtue, exhibited in many instances within our
